Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your letter of January 11, 1993, regarding alleged child abuse in an Ottawa Board of Education school.

I am advised that you spoke by telephone to the Regional Director of Crown Attorneys in Ottawa prior to writing me.

The Regional Director, Norman Douglas, asked the Crown Attorney in Ottawa, Jim Stewart, to look into your complaint that you had dealt with the Ottawa Crown Attorney's office in the past and found them to be uncooperative.

Mr. Stewart did two things. Firstly, he checked the files in the Ottawa Crown Attorney's office and found only one letter from you dated January 28, 1990, addressed to Mr. Jean Comtois, Ministry of Education - that letter was copied to the Ottawa Crown Attorney's office.

Secondly, Mr. Stewart has spoken to Detective Logan of the Ottawa Police and asked him to look into your complaint.

Once the Ottawa Police have investigated this matter they will report back to Mr. Stewart who in turn will provide a report to Mr. Douglas. Mr. Douglas will then be getting back to you.

Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention.

Yours very truly,
